MINOR APPOINTMENTS

Made by Selectmen at Wednesday's Meeting—No Truant Officer or Personal Tax Collector.

The board of selectmen of the town of Willimantic held a special meeting Wednesday afternoon in its rooms in the town building and made a few minor appointments left over from the last regular board meeting. The two most important matters yet unsettled, the appointment of a truant officer and the enumerator for the personal tax enrollment, were not settled Wednesday, and allowed to go over to a future meeting of the board.

The lack of action on the first appointment by the board was due to a legal opinion from Town Counsel Thomas J. Kelley to the effect that there was no such officer as a truant officer in the town of Willimantic.
The minor appointments made were as follows:

North Willimantic Cemetery Committee—F. Louis Hall, Leslie F. Hartson and Dwight E. Lyon. Willimantic—D.
C. Barrow, Carl R. Aldred and James M. Smith. Windham—George E. Challenger, E. Harlow Holmes, H. Clinton Lathrop and Everett D. Hopkins.

Wood Inspectors—George F. Taylor, James V. F. Johnson, George S. Elliott, D. E. Lyon, Charles L. Boss, F. W.
Webb, E. W. Avery and Isaac H. Johnson.

OBITUARY.

Rosie Camarcor.

Rosie, the eighteen months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Camar-cor of Leonard Bridge, died early on Tuesday morning following an illness of several days with whooping cough. The funeral was held late Tuesday afternoon. Burial was in the Hebrew cemetery at Perkins Corners and was in charge of Sexton Wolf Rosen.

Charged With Breach of the Peace.

Chief E. H. Richmond arrested Tonesday morning, on a warrant charging him with breach of the peace. The warrant was sworn out by a relative of the accused and issued by the prosecuting attorney. Levey was released on bonds and will appear in police court this (Thursday) morning. The arrest was the result of a fracas alleged to have been committed at the home of the complainant on Mansfield avenue Tuesday evening.

Meeting Postponed.

The meeting of the Women's Home Missionary society of the First Baptist church that was to have been held Wednesday afternoon with Mrs.
E. J. Patten as speaker, was postponed because of the weather and will be held this (Thursday) afternoon.

Payette Bound Over.

Arthur Payette, aged 21, who attempted suicide by hanging Tuesday morning in police court, Wednesday morning at Fairview hospital, this city, was bound over to the next term of the criminal superior court for Windham county under $200 bonds.

He was unable to secure a bond-man and was taken to Brooklyn jail, where he will remain until March, unless a bondsmen is obtained. Payette had practically recovered from his rash act of Tuesday, but from remarks that he made to the police it would be inferred he had not entirely given up the insane idea of trying to take his life.

REV. ROBERT E. TURNER

tor at Lebanon and Fitchville Twenty Years.

about a fortnight. He was a native of Ledyard and for the past 20 years had been pastor of the Lebanon and he never made a change. He was well thought of by all who knew him and

Want to Relocate Tracks.

Wednesday First Selectman Robert E. Mitchell, Town Counsel Thomas J.
Kelley and Supervisor Councilman J. A. King were in Hartford to appear before the public utilities commissioners on the subject of relocating the tracks of the railroad in the construction of the new state highway on Columbia avenue in this city. They thought the commission will grant the right to relocate the tracks, as the new York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, together with the Central Vermont railroad, has no objection to the relocation. The same will be in no way affected by the new high-public who will use the highway when it is constructed.

BOUND FOR NORWICH.

Three-Ton Autotruck Gets Stalled at Station, Holding Up Train.

Automobile trucks were much in the timelight in Danielson Tuesday night, either causing trouble or getting tangled in it on their own account.
Among other incidents was one in which a big three-ton vehicle loaded with hay was stalled on the tracks of the Franklin street railroad crossing.
The chauffeur, unfamiliar with the streets, drove his car directly across the track below the planking of the crossing, which is well lighted, and got stuck. He was freed from seeing his machine tumbled to pieces by a fast freight that was about due from the north a young man pulled off a red flash light a distance of half a mile and used it as a warning to the train, though the train did not come along until several minutes later. The truck at the Main street crossing, when it did arrive, the train was delayed here about half an hour. The truck, which was bound from New Bedford to Norwich, was finally backed off the track and proceeded, apparently uninjured.
The chauffeur got into the mix in trying to follow someone's instructions as to turning from Franklin into Dyer-street when he came to the trolley tracks. He mistook the steam road in tracks for those of the trolley line and attempted to turn into the trolley tracks, which were just east of the Franklin street crossing.

Slicking Up Saloons to Do Business.

Preparatory to the visits of inspection by the county commissioners, the dozen persons who have filed applications for licenses in Killingly are busy cleaning up their places. There is almost every instance in Danielson have been closed since the last year of license. The five places in a row on the east side of Main street below the railroad crossing are in this class, as, in fact, are the five others on other streets in the borough, which have been used but little since 1909. When all were licensed places. In addition the activity of preparing the places Danielson is now visited by liquor salesmen from many New England cities and New York.

Borough News Briefs.

No cases of glanders or farcy have brary.

men to get to the windows in the upper stories of any of the buildings in
